Bachelor of Laws

BILINGUAL BACHELOR OF LAWS

Placed in the center of the lively city of Murcia, the Law School of the University of Murcia combines a 100-year history of legal education with the renewed commitment to prepare students for the highly demanding and globalized current legal market. The Law School is one of the few in Spain that offers a bilingual English-Spanish Law Degree and a Legal Clinic for students working with non-profit organizations and participating in international students' moot court competitions.

Bachelor's Degrees

- Bachelor of Laws (bilingual)
- Law and Business Management and Administration (double degree)
- Criminology
- Political Science

The Faculty of Laws offers the opportunity to study a bilingual Bachelor of Laws with a significant number of subjects fully taught in English.

Main features of the bilingual Bachelor of Laws:

- ❑ Courses will be taught by highly qualified professors in English as a second language.
- ❑ The participation in the bilingual degree will be reflected in the European Diploma Supplement and in the academic transcript.

Key Characteristics:

- ❑ Over 30% of the degree credits in English
- ❑ 70 places offered
