2.1. Recommended language skills

The sending institution, following agreement with our institution, is responsible for providing support to its nominated candidates so that they can have the recommended language skills at the start of the study or teaching period:

Type of mobility	Subject area	Language(s) of instruction	Recommended language of instruction level *
Student Mobility for Studies		CS, EN, DE, ES	B2 (in exceptional cases upon agreement B1)
Staff Mobility for Teaching		CS, EN, DE, ES	C1

* Level according to Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR), see <http://europass.cedefop.europa.eu/en/resources/european-language-levels-cefr>

For more details on the language of instruction recommendations, please refer to our course catalogue. For some subject areas (e.g. Sports) the language requirements may be different.

2.2. Guidelines

- Students must be nominated through PALACKÝ UNIVERSITY ERASMUS AND EXCHANGE PROGRAMMES ONLINE NOMINATION AND APPLICATION SYSTEM (online nomination and application system). The institutional coordinator and the person responsible for student mobility at a partner institution will receive from the email address noreply_erasmusplus@upol.cz information about the nomination procedure and access to the system every year on March 1 when the nomination period for the new academic year is always open. In case the information email with the access link was not received, please contact the International Relations Office at iro@upol.cz.
- As soon as the nomination is successfully submitted, each nominated student will receive unique access to on-line application.
- For information update/possible changes please follow our web at <http://www.upol.cz/en/students/exchange-students/erasmus/>
- In case of additional requirements in regard to academic, organizational or other aspects (e.g. students with special needs) please contact the respective incoming mobility coordinator.
- Incoming students are allowed to take courses in other study fields but they are requested to take the majority of courses in the study area mentioned in the inter-institutional agreement.
- Students are offered a Czech language course throughout the semester.
- Academic staff interested in a teaching visit at UP should contact the relevant department.
- Non-academic staff members interested in spending a training week at UP should contact the Institutional coordinator (yvona.vyhnankova@upol.cz). A proposal of the Mobility Agreement is also required.
- For information about provisions for students and staff with disabilities see: <http://www.upol.cz/en/skupiny/students/guide/students-with-special-needs/>

2.3.2. Decision Response

Successful students will receive the letter of the acceptance within 4-6 weeks after the deadline for applications via email.

2.3.3. Arrival Dates and Orientation

The students should plan their arrival for the weekend preceding the beginning of the orientation week or according to the official beginning of classes at a respected UP Faculty e.g. students of health sciences or medicine may start a week earlier. For more information see: <https://www.upol.cz/en/students/exchange-students/academic-calendar-organization-of-study/>

All students are expected to attend the Orientation programme. Dates and details of the Orientation Week are confirmed by email once the students have been accepted.

2.3.4. Transcripts of Records

A Transcript of Records will be issued no later than 4 weeks after the assessment period has finished at our institution. The student is receiving a notification email with a link to access the document.

3. Academic information

3.1. Course Catalogue

Erasmus and Bilateral Agreement Exchange students are offered subjects/courses within the subject area they are admitted into, according to the Agreement signed between the institutions. In the course catalogue the available courses have a note „the course is available to a short term student“. Students should always check the language of instruction when selecting a subject/course!

<https://stag.upol.cz/ects/> or <https://www.upol.cz/en/students/exchange-students/courses/>

3.2. Number of courses/credits per semester

Normal workload is 30 ECTS per semester.

Erasmus International Credit mobility (KA107) students are required to take min 20 ECTS per semester, minimum load for other exchange students and Erasmus (KA103) is 15 ECTS.

1 course is worth 3 – 6 ECTS

3.3. Grading system

Credit (R) - awarded after fulfilling academic requirements at the end of each semester, no grade.

Colloquium (R) - exam, graded only “passed” or “failed”, a percent evaluation of student's academic performance can be requested from the teacher, a conversion table available in the ToR can be used to set up a grade if necessary.

Exam graded:

- A – excellent
- B – very good
- C – good
- D – satisfactory
- E – sufficient
- F – failed

The value of local credits corresponds to ECTS credits.
